

Taft Talks To Labor Audiences

Was More Along Educational Line Than Any of His Former Speeches.

DEFINED THE INJUNCTION.

Only Did His Duty When He Issued Them Against Laboring Men.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 22.—During the first of the three days he is to spend in Indiana, William H. Taft has talked to more people than on any previous day of the campaign. In each of his 18 speeches the listeners and applauders have numbered thousands. Rejuvenated in voice, energy and enthusiasm by his one day of rest, the candidate handled the campaign with even a greater degree of positiveness than heretofore. In the very first speech he made he ridiculed Mr. Bryan's charge of "bribery" in connection with the promises of employers to their employees of more work with Republican success, and the orders of business men for goods said to be made contingent on the same result. These were not bribes, he said, but business. They did not represent false conditions, but facts. Judge Taft talked today to many labor audiences, and it was noticeable that what he said was more educational than heretofore. At Linton, where he spoke to several thousand coal miners, he gave them his history of the writ of injunction, something he has not previously done.

At Terre Haute he made a clear distinction between the Republican and Democratic platforms on the use of the injunction, and declared business to be property. There were two occasions during the day when Candidate Debs came in for attention. They were at Terre Haute, the home of Debs, and at the two meetings at Evansville.

The largest outdoor gathering Mr. Taft said he had ever addressed was assembled at Terre Haute when the Taft special arrived there this afternoon. Many present said it was the largest gathering in the history of the state.

The injunction was the subject of the speech at Terre Haute, and after it had been explained and the position of the two parties set forth, the candidate declared with great vehemence:

WHY HE ISSUED INJUNCTIONS.

"That is where the Republican party stands; that is where I stand, and I don't care what happens politically, that is where I am going to stand. I have issued injunctions against the less laboring men, who were violating somebody else's rights. If I had not done it I should not have the right to be here asking for your suffrage. What kind of a judge do you want? Do you want a judge that distinguishes between classes, decides in favor of one class and against another? Is it not the judge who, under the law as it is laid down in the textbook and the statute, and with the evidence before him, under his oath decides according to the justice of the case and then issues the order—that the law acquiesces him to issue? What is an injunction? An injunction is merely an order with reference to the prevention of the abuse made before the fact occurs which is to injure or not injure the party. Where an injury has been done, a man brings suit to recover damages for the injury, but where the injury is of a character recurring from time to time in small acts for which you cannot recover damages there are adequate, then, equity says a man may have prevention rather than cure. Then he may go to court and say, 'This man is going to cut down my tree. This tree won't grow in 20 years. It belongs to me. It is on my place, and he my tenant. He is going to injure it by wasting that tree.' He goes into court and asks the judge

SOON CURED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Last summer I was troubled with an itching rash on my hands; some people called it poison ivy. I guess I must have scratched it during the night for it got worse. The hands and forearms got all full of little blisters as large as hazelnuts, so I went to a doctor. He gave me a salve and talcum powder and told me to take a needle and open the blisters, but instead of getting better it still got worse. Then he gave me some medicine and my hands and face got all swollen. I could not work any more. After lingering around for three weeks I thought I would try the Cuticura Remedies. I bought a set of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent Pills, and in one week I saw that I was no longer as bad. I kept using Cuticura and the trouble continued to grow better. In five weeks it was entirely cured. I had suffered four weeks before I tried the Cuticura Remedies and can recommend them as the best for all skin diseases. I use the Cuticura Resolvent Pills now and then as the best blood purifier. Matthew Carter, 21 Taylor St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Apr. 8 and 13, '08."

to issue an injunction to prevent the cutting down of the tree.

PREVENTION BEATS CURE.

"Is not prevention better than cure in such a case? Why then should a judge refuse to issue the injunction? That kind of remedy has been in force for 400 years, and is the most remedial writ that we have. It arose to protect poor men, and not to oppress them. For instance, the way it arose this: 'A man borrowed $500 on his farm. He gave a mortgage which in form was an absolute conveyance, subject to being made void by the payment of $500, but the farm was worth $10,000. He failed to pay the $500 on the dot, and in law they brought suit in ejectment, and they put the man off the $10,000 farm for $500. He went to the king in the old days and he said, 'This is a fine kind of justice that you are giving me. You allow this man to take my $10,000 farm for $500.'"

"The king said to his lord keeper who subsequently became the lord chancellor: 'Here, you take over this case and see whether it is justice.' The lord keeper was then an ecclesiast and he sent for the officer who had enforced that order, or was about to, and he said, 'This is unjust. I am not going to permit you to do it. I enjoin you from prosecution in a suit.'"

"That is the way the injunction came on. The lord chancellor said, 'I am going to enjoin you, and you have got to come into court and I will enjoin you until you see that the farm should be sold, that $500 shall be applied on the debt with interest, and that $500 shall go to this man who owns the farm.'"

INJUNCTION AS A REMEDY.

"That is the way the injunction grew up. It grew up to protect the poor against justice for which they could not have adequate remedy at law. It is a remedy that should be enforced against anyone who does a lawless act and in behalf of those who cannot have adequate remedy at law, and to have it abolished merely because it has sometimes been abused and sometimes issued against laboring men, is to destroy the character of your courts, is to destroy the science of the law, and to enact class legislation, that when you think of it, you will utterly disapprove. I am not here to apologize for what I have done in court. I am here to say that no decision of mine on such a subject has ever been reversed, and if I had not decided as I did, and if I had not enforced my injunctions when I issued them, I would not have the right to come here and stand before you and ask you to vote for me as a presidential candidate."

Because Candidate Debs had arranged two months ago for a meeting in Evansville tonight and had rented the largest hall in the city, the parade and meeting of Judge Taft had competition.

NEW YORK POLICE PUZZLED OVER SHOOTING

New York, Oct. 23.—Every patrolman and plain clothes man on the New York police force is searching today for the daring robbers who last night shot Maurice Tannenholz after robbing the jewelry store of B. Tannenholz in Lexington avenue of diamonds valued at $4,000.

The police are still hopeful that some clue may be obtained from the driver of the taxicab in which the men escaped. Every chauffeur employed by the New York Taxicab company will be subjected to a searching examination by the police.

Tannenholz, who was taken to a hospital immediately after the shooting, was reported to be still in a serious condition today. Only one of three bullets which entered his abdomen has been found.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Rosie Alberta, aged 41, whose husband conducts a saloon at 135 Polk street, yesterday shot and killed Zito Frappampino, a baker, whose place of business is under the saloon.

According to the story told by Mrs. Alberta to the police, Frappampino tried to mistreat her.

The business partner of Frappampino declared the shooting was the result of a long standing grudge held by the Albertas against him.

TWO LITTLE GIRLS ACCUSED OF ROBBERY

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 23.—Two sisters, one of them 12 years old and the other 6, are accused by the police of a long series of robberies here, running over a period of three months. The names of the children are withheld by the police.

It is said that a search of a playhouse and a doll's trunk at the girls' home resulted in the finding of jewelry valued at thousands of dollars.

The children were allowed to make pocket money by selling soap on commission and this chance to visit various houses, the police say, was improved to take large quantities of jewelry.

BRYAN EXPLAINS ATTACK ON GOMPERS

Republicans Trying to Make it Appear Labor Leader Does Not Represent Laboring Men.

ADVICE AS TO COERCION

Make Those Who Attempt it Give Bond as to How Much They Are to Get, and for How Long.

St. Albans, Vt., Oct. 22.—W. J. Bryan, in a brief speech here today, made reference to the letter of President Roosevelt, published today, in which the president criticized the position of Mr. Bryan and Mr. Gompers on the labor question. "The Democratic candidate was explaining the things which, he said, the Republican platform did not promise to do, and touching on the labor question, he said: 'The Republican platform does not promise a reconciliation of labor and capital. In fact, they now recognize that their antagonism of labor organizations has lost them the labor vote, and they recognize that so fully that they have entered upon the nomination of the man who stands at the head of the labor organizations and are trying to show that he does not represent the men who elected him to office, and who have been endorsing the position that he has taken in this campaign.'"

A TALK TO MINERS.

Montgomery, W. Va., Oct. 22.—Talking to a big crowd of miners and laboring men at this place today, William J. Bryan, after pleading for the election of the Democratic state ticket and the candidate for Congress from this district, plunged into a discussion of the Democratic platform, particularly with reference to the plank relating to security of bank deposits and labor. Recently a bank failure occurred at this place, and it was said that the miners had suffered considerable loss thereby.

On the labor question Mr. Bryan said that eight years ago the Republican claim was that the laboring man had a full dinner pail. "That my friends," he said, "was the sign, the emblem, the banner. I saw pictures of the full dinner pail wherever I went, but I have not seen any one who tried to carry a dinner pail in a parade, and that was down here in this state, and they arrested him for it."

"How about 16 to 1?" a voice was heard to say.

"They said, my friends," quickly reported the candidate, "the chances are 16 to 1 that you won't vote the Republican ticket. They said eight years ago that as long as the laboring man had a full dinner pail, he need not think. Now if that is a good argument, what an amount of thinking the laboring man ought to do now. Yesterday the papers announced that the officials of the New York Central road had gone out on their ear to notify the employees that they could expect a wage reduction if I was elected. Now, if any man attempts to coerce you, I want to suggest a solution. You make him give bond as to how much you are going to get and how long it will last. If they want you to sell your birthright for a mess of pottage, be sure that you get the pottage before you give up your birthright."

CERTIFICATE.

Being a state official and authorized to administer oaths and certify documents, I hereby certify that correspondence laid before me this morning from an Eastern city, states as follows: "A Dr. B.—an old practitioner in this city has had Bright's Disease for years, is bed ridden, and is simply waiting his time. He has taken three bottles of Fulton's Renal Compound with more than the usual results. Wednesday, of last week, a brother physician called to see him. The latter upon finding he was better, asked what he was taking. Dr. B.—replied, 'It is in the window.' The Dr's rejoinder was, 'And so you are taking that stuff, too, are you?' I had a severe case of Diabetes in a patient who left this city and whom I expected to die. Yesterday I had a letter from him stating that he had taken Fulton's Compound and was well."

The following report is made by another prominent physician in the same city, using Fulton's Compound on an acute case of Bright's—'case is now on the second bottle with astonishing results.'"

No matter whether you call it kidney trouble, Nephritis or Bright's Disease, it is a case of inflamed kidneys and as the 14 time medicines are kidney excretants, it is clear why they are futile. Fulton's Renal Compound is the first successful Renal emollient thus reducing kidney inflammation which is now curable for the first time. Even the serious supposed incurable cases yield. To The People of Utah.

During the past two weeks the Inter-Mountain Republican, Republican speakers and Republican Campaign Managers have been and are wilfully and deliberately misrepresenting the Democratic party and its candidates and those charged with the conduct of the Democratic campaign.

The Inter-Mountain Republican during this time has repeatedly charged that a deal has been consummated by the Democratic party through its chairman, Samuel A. King, with the American party, by which the Democrats were to vote the American County, Judicial and legislative ticket in Salt Lake County, in exchange for votes for the State and National Democratic ticket. It has charged that the leaders of the Democratic party were bartering the votes of the Democrats within the state of Utah and were in league with the American party for the purpose of perpetuating trouble and contention within the State of Utah and for the purpose of making it possible to prosecute certain leaders of the dominant Church and to drive them from the state.

On behalf of the members of the Democratic State Central Committee, the members of the Democratic Executive Committee and of the Democratic Advisory Committee, we hereby denounce the statements as being wilful, malicious and deliberate falsehoods originated, circulated and proclaimed for the express purpose of alarming the members of the dominant Church and inducing them to support the Republican ticket. We charge that the Inter-Mountain Republican, the managers and leaders of the Republican party, are responsible for these outrageous and malicious falsehoods; that they are being circulated and proclaimed by them, they and each of them well knowing that the charges are absolutely untrue.

We charge that the Inter-Mountain Republican, the Republican managers and leaders are not only responsible for these falsehoods, but are also responsible for their circulation, and by such acts they become the enemies of the people of this state. Defeat awaits them in this election and their methods have become desperate. Though trouble and turmoil must result from their methods in the state of Utah, yet they think more of a few petty offices than they do of the welfare of this state and nation. We declare to the people of Utah that in this campaign, as in all campaigns the Democratic party stands for Democratic principles and the representatives of its party, and has no other object or purpose in view than the triumph of its principles and the election of its candidates.

The Democratic party, its managers or leaders, have never at any time or upon any occasion intimidated, suggested or contemplated any agreement or combination with the American party, or any other party.

The Democratic party of Utah, its managers or leaders are not now and never have been a party to any scheme, combination or deal with any other party whatsoever and in this campaign, it demands justice at the hands of the people of Utah and asks the voters to rebuke at the polls such wilful, disreputable and malicious campaign methods as are being resorted to at this time by the Inter-Mountain Republican and the leaders of the Republican party in this state.
